

FILIP JUDA

President, World Minifootball Federation (WMF)

As President of the World Minifootball Federation (WMF), Filip Juda is responsible for driving the growth and popularity of minifootball across the globe. This includes overseeing the unification of international minifootball communities, development of new infrastructure, retention of grassroots players, attracting more spectators to stadiums and driving revenue to minifootball businesses.

In addition to leading the World Minifootball Federation since 2013, Juda is also tasked with supervising the biennial Minifootball World Cup for senior men, women, and under-23 categories and ultimately expand global participation in WMF's flagship competitions.

Juda is an experienced sports administrator with over 20 years of experience working with the Czech Republic's sports ministries and football associations, including the Czech Minifootball Association. He is a former advisor to the Senate of the Czech Republic, Ministry of Education, Youth and Sport and the House of Commons. He holds a bachelor's degree from the Geneva School of Economic and Management and is trilingual speaking English, Czech and German.
